A Bicentennial Message
By the President of the United States of America

We now mark the beginning of our Third Century as an Anniversary. Never as well as the 200th Anniversary of the American Revolution. For two centuries our Nation has grown, changed and flourished. A diverse people, drawn from all corners of the Earth, have joined together to fulfill the Promise of Democracy.

America's Bicentennial is rich in History and in the promise and potential of the years that lie Ahead. It is about the events of our Past, our Accomplishments, our Traditions, and Diversity, our Patriotism, our Tenacity, and our commitment to a better Life for all Americans.
The Bicentennial offers each of us the opportunity to join with our fellow Citizens in honoring the Past and preparing the Future in Cooperation across the Nation. Thus, in coming together as Races, Nationalities, and Immigrants, we can and should strengthen our Traditions, Institutions, and Patriotism.

In celebration of America's Third Century, I am pleased to commend the Bicentennial Community of the United States of America for playing a special National Celebration.

Richard R. Ford
