Q: Letter

T:

INTERVIEWER READ: Let me read you the following introduction:

I'm calling from the University of Oregon Survey Research Lab. We are conducting a survey about graduate student's experiences at the U of O under the direction of Professor Gwartney-Gibbs and we are asking you to participate. The survey should take about 12 minutes to complete. You have been randomly selected to participate. All responses will be kept in strictest confidence. All records that match a name or phone number with answers to questions will be destroyed. Only aggregate data will be presented in the write up of results. Participation is voluntary, and you can choose to not answer any question or stop the interview at any time.

We appreciate your cooperation. May I proceed with the survey?

This is the end of the survey. I would like to thank you sincerely for your participation. If you would like to receive a summary of the results, please leave a message at the Oregon Survey Research Laboratory. The phone number is 346-0822. Also, if you are interested in discussing your experiences in graduate school and at the University of Oregon in greater detail, you are welcome to attend a meeting being held on April 20th from 7 to 9 pm at 122 Willamette Hall.

Thank you again and good-bye.
