Oregon State System of Higher Education

THE Oregon State System of Higher Education, as organized in 1932 by the State Board of Higher Education following a Federal survey of higher education in Oregon, includes all the state-supported institutions of higher learning. The several institutions, located at six different places in the state, are now elements in an articulated system, parts of an integrated whole. The educational program is so organized as to distribute as widely as possible throughout the state the opportunities for general education and to center on a particular campus specialized, technical, and professional curricula closely related to one another.

The institutions of the State System of Higher Education are the University of Oregon at Eugene, Oregon State Agricultural College at Corvallis, the University of Oregon Medical School at Portland, the Oregon Normal School at Monmouth, the Southern Oregon Normal School at Ashland, and the Eastern Oregon Normal School at La Grande.

Each of these institutions, except the Medical School which is on a graduate basis, provides the general studies fundamental to a well-rounded education. At the three normal schools general and professional studies are combined in the teacher-training curriculum. At the Southern Oregon Normal School and the Eastern Oregon Normal School students who do not plan to become elementary school teachers may devote their time exclusively to studies in the liberal arts and sciences.

At the University and the State College two years of unspecialized work in liberal arts and sciences are provided on a parallel basis in the Lower Division. Beyond the Lower Division level the work of the two institutions is distinctly differentiated. At the University are centered the advanced curricula in the arts, letters, and social sciences, and the professional schools resting on these fundamental fields of knowledge. At the State College are centered the advanced curricula in the physical and biological sciences and the professional schools resting on these natural sciences.

The Medical School

HE University of Oregon Medical School has been in continuous operation since 1887, when it was established by a charter from the regents of the University. On September 1, 1913, the Willamette University department of medicine was merged with the University of Oregon Medical School, leaving the University of Oregon Medical School the only medical school in the Pacific Northwest. Under the terms of the merger, the students of the Willamette University medical department were transferred to the University of Oregon Medical School, and upon graduation received diplomas indicative of the consolidation. The alumni bodies of the two institutions were also merged.

The Medical School is organized into instructional divisions as follows: basic science departments, offering instruction in those sciences basic to medicine; clinical departments, offering instruction in medicine with its various branches, surgery with its various branches, obstetrics, and pediatrics; and the Department of Nursing Education.

Location

PORTLAND (population 301,815), situated on the Willamette River near its junction with the Columbia, is a modern city of diverse business and industrial activities. Although 100 miles from the Pacific, Portland is an important seaport. The city is known for its beautiful homes, parks, and boulevards, and for its equable climate. The foothills of the Cascade Mountains rise on the outskirts of the city. Mount Hood, one of the major peaks of the range, towers on the southeastern horizon.

As indicated elsewhere, concentration of a number of hospitals on the campus of the Medical School and articulation of the work of the school with various health and social agencies of the city afford superior opportunities for medical study.

Campus and Buildings

RIOR to 1919 the Medical School was housed in a three-story frame building at Twenty-third and Loveiov streets near Good Samaritan Hospital, In 1919 the school was moved to a twenty-acre tract deeded to the regents of the University by the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company in 1914, as a campus for future development of a center of medical teaching and research. The campus was enlarged in 1924 by the addition of an adjoining track of eighty-eight acres, a gift of Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Mr. Philip Jackson in behalf and in memory of the late C. S. Jackson. It is named Sam Jackson Park. The entire campus of one hundred and eight acres occupies a site of exceptional scenic grandeur, at an elevation overlooking the city and the Willamette River, isolated from noise and smoke but within one and one-half miles of the business center. It affords an ideal setting for medical-school buildings and affiliated hospitals. In 1920 the University conveyed to Multnomah County nine acres on the campus for the construction of a general charity hospital. In 1926 a tract of twenty-five acres was deeded to the United States government as a site for a new Veterans' Bureau hospital of three hundred beds.

The First Medical School Unit (1919) was financed through an appropriation of $110,000 by the 1917 State Legislature and by cash donations amounting to $25,000 from Portland citizens. The building is a three-story reinforced concrete structure, housing the preclinical departments.

Mackenzie Hall (1922), second unit of the Medical School Building, was made possible by an appropriation of $113,000 by the 1921 State Legislature, matched by an equal appropriation from the General Education Board of New York. It is named in honor of the late Dean Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie. The building is four stories high, similar in construction to the first unit but with twice its capacity. The General Education Board appropriated $50,000 in addition for equipment.

The Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children (1926) was financed through a gift of $200,000 in 1924 by Mrs. E. W. Morse and Mr. Edward Doernbecher in behalf and in memory of their father, the late F. S. Doernbecher, for the establishment and construction of a children's hospital. This gift was augmented by individual gifts totaling $120,000. The hospital, containing 80 beds for children, is located on the Medical School campus. It provides exceptional facilities for the care of sick and disabled children committed to the Medical School by the counties of the state under the Children's Hospital Service Law.

The Outpatient Clinic (1931). This unit, connecting the Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children and the Multnomah County General Hospital, affords teaching facilities for the clinical branches of the Medical School. Funds for the construction of the building were provided through a gift from the General Education Board of New York amounting to $400,000.

Clinical and Special Facilities

LINICAL facilities are afforded by the Multnomah County Hospital, the Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children, the Outpatient Clinic, and the Extramural Clinics. These institutions and agencies are effectively coordinated for the clinical needs of the Medical School.

Multnomah County Hospital. The first unit of the Multnomah County Hospital, erected on the Medical School campus, was opened in 1923. This unit, built at a cost of approximately $1,000,000, embodies the most modern conceptions of a teaching hospital. It accommodates 300 beds and is a general charity hospital. Contemplated additional units will increase the capacity to 500 beds.

Under the terms of a contractual agreement between the commissioners of Multnomah County and the University of Oregon, the Medical School has access to the hospital for teaching purposes and the director of the hospital becomes a University official. The director of the hospital appoints the professional staff, from nominations by the Medical School. The arrangement provides a most successful affiliation for teaching, research, and the care of the sick.

The Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children affords every facility for teaching and research in the department of pediatrics and in other clinical divisions. The hospital is operated by state appropriations and private donations,

The Outpatient Clinic unit of the Medical School joins the Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children and the Multnomah County General Hospital, thus unifying admissions, medical records, X-ray laboratory, social service, and other such special medical services—eliminating duplication and facilitating the care of patients and the teaching of medical students. The history of the Outpatient Clinic begins with the founding of the Portland Free Dispensary in 1907 by the People's Institute, a private philanthropic institution. The dispensary became affiliated with the Medical School in 1909. It was located at Fourth and Jefferson streets until January 1, 1931, when it was merged into the Outpatient Clinic on the Medical School campus.

The budget for maintenance and operation of the Clinic is provided by Multnomah County, the City of Portland, the State Board of Health, the Medical School, the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, the Portland Community Chest, and the Junior League of Portland. Cooperative service is furnished by the Junior League of Portland and the Visiting Nurses Association.

Extramural Clinics. Clinics and ward walks for small classes are conducted in a number of hospitals not situated on the Medical School campus. These classes are held at Good Samaritan Hospital, St. Vincent's Hospital, Emanuel Hospital, Portland Medical Hospital, Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, Waverly Baby Home, Albertina Kerr Nursery, Contagious Hospital, and the State Hospital for the Insane.

Autopsy Service and Pathological Museum. Under a contractual agreement with the Multnomah County commissioners, the Department of Pathology of the Medical School is designated to perform and record all coroner's autopsies. Approximately 400 autopsies are performed a year. This arrangement materially augments the Pathological Museum and affords unusual opportunity for teaching in pathology and medical jurisprudence, besides assuring authoritative records for medico-legal purposes. The museum has gross and tissue specimens numbering many thousands.

Library

HE Medical School Library contains more than 20,000 volumes and receives 350 current journals. Through the privilege of interlibrary loans it is possible to procure within a few days volumes not contained in this collection. The library is supported from the general Medical School fund. In addition the Oregon State Board of Medical Examiners, the Portland Academy of Medicine, and the Portland City and County Medical Society contribute annually toward its maintenance.

Included in the library is the valuable collection of the late Dr. Ernst A. Sommer, consisting of nearly 2,000 volumes, which was presented to the school by Dr. Sommer in March 1933.

Jones Lectureship in Medicine

HE Jones Lectureship in Medicine, founded by Dr. Noble Wiley Jones of Portland, provides the income from a $5,000 fund for a series of lectures by an authority in some branch of medical science. The first lectures were given in 1920 by Professor Ludwig Hektoen, professor of pathology, the University of Chicago; the second in 1921, by Professor William Ophüls, professor of pathology. Leland Stanford University: the third in 1922, by Sir Thomas Lewis of London: the fourth in 1925, by Dr. A. I. Carlson, University of Chicago; the fifth in 1926, by Dr. Martin H. Fisher, professor of physiology, University of Cincinnati; the sixth in 1928, by Dr. Julius Bauer of Vienna; the seventh in 1931, by Dr. E. T. Bell, professor of pathology, University of Minnesota Medical School; the eighth in 1932, by Dr. W. B. Cannon, professor of physiology, Harvard University; the ninth in 1933, by Dr. George H. Whipple, dean of the University of Rochester Medical School; the tenth in 1934, by Dr. John Farquhar Fulton, Sterling Professor of Physiology, Yale University School of Medicine; and the eleventh in 1935, by Dr. Wilder Penfield, Professor of Neurology and Neurosurgery, McGill University.

Admission and Requirements

A PPLICATION for admission should be made not later than July 1. The list of matriculants must be completed early in July. It is therefore impossible to consider applications submitted after July 1.

Notice of acceptance of application is accompanied by an original and a duplicate matriculation card. The original is to be presented on registration day. The duplicate must be returned not later than thirty days following receipt, with a matriculation fee of $5.00 and a deposit of $20.00 to reserve a place in the entering class. The deposit of $20.00 applies toward the tuition fee of the first term. It is not refundable after a period of thirty days following notice of acceptance.

Applicants for admission are required to have satisfactorily completed four years in an accredited high school, or its equivalent, and collegiate preparation covering not less than three years of study in an acceptable institution. Preparation for entrance to the University of Oregon Medical School must include the following:

I. High-School Preparation. Applicants for admission are required to satisfy the entrance requirements for admission to an accredited college or university.

Recommended High-School Course. The following high-school course, which meets all the formal requirements, is strongly recommended:

T.	Inite		Unit	'n
English Algebra Geometry Physics Chemistry	1 3/2 1 1	Latin History German or French Electives	1 2
Total			15

II. Collegiate Preparation. At least 135 term hours (90 semester hours) of collegiate preparation, exclusive of credit in military science, in an accredited institution are required for admission. The following work is prescribed as a part of this preparation:

Term	Hours
Chemistry, inorganic (qualitative and quantitative may be included)	15
Chemistry, organic Biology	8 20
Physics	12
English	9
German or French	20

The subject matter covered in the course in organic chemistry should be distributed over the aliphatic and aromatic compounds. Not less than twenty-five per cent of all chemistry credit must be for laboratory work.

Preparation in biology should be distributed between morphological and experimental courses in animal biology.

The course in physics should cover the subject divisions presented in the customary one-year college course, including not less than one laboratory period per week.

The German or French requirement may be satisfied by a statement certifying that the applicant possesses a ready sight-reading ability, submitted by an instructor offering courses for credit in French or German in a standard college or university.

Candidates who are deficient in any of the minimum requirements indicated above will not be considered eligible for admission.

Recommended Elective Subjects. The student preparing to study medicine is advised to plan a balance in elective courses between courses in liberal arts and courses, beyond the minimum requirements, in subjects prescribed for admission to the Medical School. Subjects suggested are: history, economics, sociology, psychology, mathematics, and advanced work in English.

Present facilities necessitate limiting each entering class to sixty. Many more than this number apply for admission. Selection is made upon the basis of scholarship, thoroughness of preparation, and personal fitness for the profession.

Aptitude Tests. All applicants for admission are expected to have taken the aptitude test given by the Association of American Medical Colleges at the various institutions offering premedical curricula. Exceptions to this rule may be allowed in the case of applicants who, because of legitimate reasons approved by the Committee on Admissions, have been unable to take the test.

Bachelor's Degree. A student entering the University of Oregon Medical School without a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree must complete the work required for one of these degrees in the Oregon State system of Higher Education, or in the institution at which he received his premedical preparation, before entering upon the work of the third year in the Medical School.

Special Students. Students who are not candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine may register as special students in courses in fundamental laboratory branches of medical science for which they are prepared. Special students possessing the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science and other qualifications in point of experience may be admitted to clinical lecture courses upon recommendation by the head of the department concerned to the Committee on Admissions, subject to approval by the dean. Academic credit will not be granted for such work unless, upon the recommendation of the Committee on Admissions, the candidate is registered in the Graduate Division of the State System of Higher Education. Graduates in medicine may register as special students in any course. No graduates in medicine are accepted as candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine.

Special students are required to submit credentials and secure the approval of the Committee on Admissions before registering.

Special students who register for special work and who are not candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine are charged tuition according to the amount of work undertaken and the nature of the course.

Admission with Advanced Standing. A student may be accepted for admission with advanced standing, provided his official credentials are accompanied by a statement from the registrar of the institution from which he is transferring to the effect that the applicant's scholarship in medical-school work ranks him in the upper fifty per cent of his class. An honorable dismissal, and premedical preparation meeting the regular requirements for admission, are also required.

Promotion. Promotions from the first to the second year and from the second to the third year in the Medical School are based upon annual examinations. Formal course examinations for first- and second-year students at the close of each term have been discontinued. The term system of examination is still maintained for special students and for students working toward degrees through the Graduate Division of the State System of Higher Education (see below). Instructors give oral and written quizzes at such intervals as seem desirable for any particular course. Records are kept by the instructor and used by him in determining whether or not the student has sufficient command of the material of the course to warrant taking the annual examination in the subject. The instructor at the close of the course (term) may declare the student eligible to take the annual examination; or, if attendance is poor, interest lacking, or scholarship inferior, he may declare the student ineligible, in which case the course must be repeated. At the close of the academic year in June, those students who have been declared eligible in all courses taken during the year are given an examination covering the year's work in all courses taken. The entire examination is given again in September for those who were unable to take the June examination, or who took that examination but failed to pass.

Requirements for Degrees. Work is offered at the Medical School leading to Doctor of Medicine, Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

M.D. Degree. A candidate for the degree of Doctor of Medicine must have completed satisfactorily the curriculum prescribed by the faculty of the Medical School. Students admitted with advanced standing must take at least the last year of work at the University of Oregon Medical School. All candidates for degrees are expected to be present at the Commencement Exercises and receive the diploma in person.

M.A., M.S., and Ph.D. Degrees. The departments of Anatomy, Bacteriology and Hygiene, Biochemistry, Pathology, Pharmacology, and Physiology offer instruction leading to the Master of Arts, the Master of Science, and the Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Work toward these advanced degrees is offered as an integral part of the work of the Graduate Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education, and is subject to the rules and regulations of the Graduate Division.

Summer Courses

OTH preclinical and clinical courses are offered at the Medical School during the summer. They are open to students registered in the Medical School.

Preclinical courses for medical students or others qualified for the work are offered during the summer, provided a sufficient number are enrolled to warrant. Tuition for these courses is based on the number of credit hours given for each course, the rate being $4.50 per term hour. Classes begin at 8:00 a. m. and laboratory work follows lecture work.

Clinical. A limited amount of clinical work at the Outpatient Clinic is offered during the summer months to medical students of junior and senior standing. The full time required for work in the fall, winter, and spring terms is required when a course is taken in the summer. Clinics, for which required or elective credit may be given, are conducted in medicine, surgery, dermatology, urological disease, ophthalmology, otology, rhinology, laryngology, gynecology, and obstetrics.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING NONRESIDENT TUITION

The Oregon State Board of Higher Education has defined a nonresident student as a person who comes into Oregon from another state for the purpose of attending one of the institutions under the control of the Board.

In order to draw a clear line between resident and nonresident students, the Board has ordered that all students in the institutions under its control who have not been domiciled in Oregon for more than one year immediately preceding the day of their first enrollment in the institution shall be termed nonresident students, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Students whose fathers (or mothers, if the father is not living) are domiciled in the state of Oregon.
- (2) Children of regular employees of the Federal government stationed in the state of Oregon.
- (3) Students holding bachelor's or higher degrees from higher educational institutions whose work is acceptable as preparation for graduate work.
- (4) Students in summer sessions.

Fellowships, Scholarships, and Prizes

Noble Wiley Jones Pathology Research Fellowship. This fellowship founded in 1919, consisting of the interest on $5,000 held in trust, is the gift of Dr. Noble Wiley Jones of Portland and is awarded annually to a medical student on the basis of scholastic ability, training in pathology, and interest in the work.

Henry Waldo Coe Prize. This prize, founded in 1929, is awarded annually to a second-, third-, or fourth-year student in the Medical School who presents an essay on a medical subject exhibiting superiority and originality in composition. The prize consists of the interest on a gift of $1,000 from the late Dr. Henry Waldo Coe.

State Scholarships. In accordance with special authorization from the Legislature, the State Board of Higher Education awards annually a limited number of scholarships to students in the institutions of the State System who rank high in scholastic attainment and who need financial assistance. These scholarships cover tuition. Recipients must pay the building fee, the matriculation fee, and special fees. Awards of State Scholarships to students at the Medical School are made by the High School Contacts Committee of the State System of Higher Education, upon recommendation of the dean and the Scholarship Committee of the school. Applications should be addressed to the dean.

Student Interests

Student Health. A committee of the faculty has special charge of student health. In addition to the general service of the entire school, arrangement is made for securing the advice and service of the dean, associate dean, and heads of departments in all student-health and welfare problems.

All entering students are required to take a physical examination.

^{*} The cost of any damage done by a student to Medical School property is deducted from his deposit; in case the identity of the one responsible cannot be established, a pro rata charge is made against the entire class of which he is a member.

Fraternal and Honor Societies. Chapters of the following medical fraternities and honor societies are located at the Medical School:

Alpha Epsilon Iota.

Alpha Kappa Kappa.

Nu Sigma Nu.

Phi Delta Epsilon.

Theta Kappa Psi

Alpha Omega Alpha (honorary medical society for both men and women).

The Medical School Alumni Association includes the graduates of the Medical School and of the Willamette University Medical School, which was merged with the University of Oregon Medical School in 1913. A strong organization has been built up, devoted to the interests of students and graduates and to the encouragement of scientific and professional progress among members of the association and in the medical profession generally. With the faculty of the Medical School, the association is cooperating to build up in Portland a great medical center. The officers of the Alumni Association for 1936-37 are:

Dr. B. A. VanLoan	President
Dr. Arthur C. Jones	First Vice-President
Dr. Roswell S. Waltz
Dr. Frederick C. Adams	Third Vice-President

Curriculum in Medicine

HE curriculum in medicine requires a total of seven years' work beyond high school. The first three years, as indicated above, must be satisfactorily completed before admission to the Medical School in Portland. It has been found necessary for the present to limit the number of first-year students at the Medical School; consequently, completion of the third premedical year does not guarantee admission to the Medical School.

The four years spent in the Medical School in Portland are devoted to the subjects of the regular four-year curriculum in medicine required by law.

The prescribed and recommended subjects for the first, second, and third undergraduate years—i.e., premedical instruction—are described under Admission and Requirements. In the first, second, third, and fourth years at the Medical School there are 4,274 hours of required work. Elective courses may be taken with the permission of the instructor in any term for which they are scheduled. Students should consult the instructor in charge before enrolling in an elective course. Descriptions of courses are to be found under the several department headings.

Description of Courses

The Medical School uses the uniform course-numbering system of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. This numbering system, as it applies to Medical School courses,

- 400-499. Upper division courses primarily for first-year students in medicine, but to which graduate students may be admitted on approval of the graduate adviser and department head concerned.
- 500-599. Courses primarily for students in basic medical science, but to which graduate students may be admitted on approval of graduate adviser and department head
- 600-699. Courses that are highly professional in nature and may count toward a professional degree, but cannot apply toward an advanced academic degree (M.A., M.S., or Ph.D.).

Certain numbers are reserved for courses that may be taken through successive terms under the same course number, credit being granted according to the amount of acceptable work done. These course numbers are as follows:

- 501. Research.
- 503. Thesis.
- 505. Reading and Conference.

General Information

URSING education at the Medical School is organized on a collegiate basis and leads to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree, or to the Junior Certificate. The department prepares the student for state registration, in cooperation with affiliated hospital schools of nursing in Portland which meet the requirements for this high standard of training.

ADMISSION

Students seeking admission to the Department of Nursing Education must file an application with: (1) the Registrar of the University of Oregon Medical School; and (2) the affiliated hospital school of nursing which the student wishes to enter.

Admission to Degree Curriculum. All applications for admission to the degree curriculum or for advanced standing must be accompanied by official transcripts of high-school and college records. Advanced standing is granted to students transferring from other institutions of collegiate rank.

Admission to Junior Certificate Curriculum. The requirements for admission with freshman standing for work leading to the Junior Certificate conform to the uniform entrance requirements adopted by all the higher educational institutions of Oregon. Application for admission by certificate is made on the official form, Uniform Certificate of Secondary School Record, prepared by the State Department of Education. The applicant's scholastic record must be certified by the principal or superintendent of his school.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

The Department of Nursing Education offers curricula as follows:

These curricula lead to the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Science degree from the University or the State College and to a diploma in nursing from the hospital school, the latter being prerequisite for the state examination for nurse registration.

Junior Certificate Curriculum. A three-year Junior Certificate Curriculum in Nursing, offered in affiliation with Good Samaritan and Multnomah County hospitals, leading to the Junior Certificate and to a diploma from the hospital school, the latter being prerequisite for the state examination for nurse registration.

Advanced Work for Graduate Nurses. Three- and four-term Curricula in Public Health Nursing, leading to a Certificate in Public Health Nursing.

The first two years of the four-year curriculum are spent at the University of Oregon at Eugene or at Oregon State College at Corvallis. The summer term between the two years and the summer term following the second year are spent in residence at an affiliated school of nursing. Courses are taken in the affiliated school of nursing and at the Medical School during these periods. The second two years are spent in the affiliated school of nursing with courses in the Medical School Department of Nursing Education. This curriculum leads to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree.

The first two years of the five-year curriculum are offered on the University campus at Eugene and on the State College campus at Corvallis. Students completing this preparatory work then take one term of work at the University of Oregon Medical School in the Department of Nursing Education, before entering one of the affiliated schools of nursing for two years of professional study and training. The schools of nursing now affiliated with the Department of Nursing Education are the Good Samaritan School of Nursing and the Multnomah County School of Nursing.

While the student is in residence at any one of the affiliated schools, all courses not requiring the hospital as a laboratory are given at the Medical School in the Department of Nursing Education. Every effort is made to correlate theory with practice.

In the fifth and senior year of the five-year curriculum the student specializes in public health nursing, hospital administration, or some other special type of nursing education, offered at the Medical School in Portland, in the College of Social Science of the University of Oregon at Eugene, or in the School of Science of Oregon State College at Corvallis.

The first two years of these curricula are designed to accomplish two things: (1) The courses have been selected with a view to their cultural value. The work is equivalent, culturally, to the regular lower-division curricula in liberal arts and sciences. (2) The courses have been arranged to provide the student with special professional preparation which will enable her to complete her work in the hospital school in two years instead of three, the time usually required for work leading to nurse registration.

At present the University of Oregon Medical School allows forty-five term hours of credit for work (theory and practice) in a school of nursing other than those affiliated, on a transcript of record from the hospital school signed by the director of nursing education of the school. To receive this credit a student must be a graduate of a standard school of nursing which admits only high-school graduates.

Advanced Curricula in Nursing

HE Department of Nursing Education offers advanced curricula in Public Health Nursing, Orthopaedic Nursing, Obstetrical Nursing, Pediatric Nursing, and Nursing Supervision. Advanced work in other nursing specialties may be arranged.

Public Health Nursing. The department offers a three-term and a four-term curriculum in Public Health Nursing, which prepare the student to become a public health nurse in urban or rural communities, and which lead to a Certificate in Public Health Nursing. A second year's work in public health nursing is also offered.

If the student in public health nursing is a candidate for the bachelor's degree, she may be allowed forty-five term hours of academic credit for three years of nurses' training, provided the school for nurses in which she has had training meets the requirements of the standard curriculum for schools of nursing.

Through the cooperation of the Portland Visiting Nurse Association, the Medical Social Service of the University of Oregon Medical School Clinics, the Bureau of School Hygiene of the Portland Health Department, the Bureau of Public Health Nursing of the State Department of Health, and the Multnomah County Public Health Nursing Association, the public health nursing student has opportunity for both rural and urban services.

Three-term Curriculum. Prerequisites for entrance are: (1) a baccalaureate degree and graduation from an accredited school of nursing, nurse registration, and formal acceptance by the director of the Department of Nursing Education after consideration of previous academic work, record of experience, age, personality, and other evidences of probable success as a public health nurse; (2) or senior standing in the degree curricula in nursing.

Four-term Curriculum. Prerequisites for entrance are college matriculation, graduation from an accredited school of nursing, nurse registration, and formal acceptance of the candidate for admission by the director of the Department of Nursing Education after consideration of previous academic work, record of experience, age, personality, and other evidences of probable success as a public health nurse.

Regular students in this curriculum carry at least sixteen hours of work each term for four terms. This includes fifteen hours of field work per week (five term hours per term) in addition to theoretical courses outlined.

Second-year Curriculum. The second-year student is allowed considerable latitude in electives for work in the field of public health nursing in which she may wish to specialize.

Orthopaedic Nursing. The department offers a three-term Curriculum in Nursing in Orthopaedics which leads to a certificate. For admission the student must fulfill the entrance requirements listed under Public Health Nursing above, and, in addition, take an examination in anatomy and in orthopaedic nursing as outlined in the Standard Curriculum for Schools of Nursing. Only applicants making a satisfactory grade will be admitted.

Through the cooperation of the Doernbecher Memorial Hospital, the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, and the Outpatient Clinic of the University of Oregon Medical School, the student will have experience in ward management, and in care of patients in hospital, clinic, and home.

Obstetrical Nursing. The Department of Nursing Education offers a three-term Curriculum in Nursing in Obstetrics which prepares the student for employment as head nurse in the obstetrical department in a hospital, or for specialization in obstetrical nursing service in home, clinic, or hospital. The curriculum leads to a Certificate in Obstetrical Nursing. For admission the student must fulfill the entrance requirements listed under Public Health Nursing above, and, in addition, take a preliminary examination covering the course in obstetrics as outlined in the Standard Curriculum for Schools of Nursing. Only those making a satisfactory grade will be admitted.

Through the cooperation of the Multnomah County Hospital and the Outpatient Clinic, the student in this curriculum will have experience in ward management, delivery room, home nursing deliveries, prenatal service in clinic and field, mothers' classes, and post-partem care in clinic and field. The standards and technic used in the Outpatient Clinic and in home deliveries are based on those used by the Maternity Center Association of New York City. The student will be required to live where she can receive telephone calls day or night while she is on call for home deliveries.

Pediatric Nursing. The Department of Nursing Education offers a three-term Curriculum in Nursing in Pediatrics, which prepares the student for employment as head nurse in the pediatric department in a hospital or for specialization in pediatric nursing in home, clinic, or hospital. The curriculum leads to a Certificate in Pediatric Nursing. For admission the student must fulfill the entrance requirements listed under Public Health Nursing above, and, in addition, take a preliminary examination covering the course in pediatrics as outlined in the Standard Curriculum for Schools of Nursing. Only those making a satisfactory grade will be admitted.

Through the cooperation of the Outpatient Clinic and the Doernbecher Hospital the student in this curriculum will have experience in ward management, and in care of children from both the social and physical standpoints in hospital, clinic, and home.

Nursing Supervision. The Department of Nursing Education offers a three-term Curriculum in Nursing Supervision which leads to a certificate. Prerequisites are the entrance requirements listed under Public Health Nursing above. Through cooperation with the affiliated hospitals, the student will have experience in ward management and teaching supervision.
