Oregon Pledge Song

Fair Oregon, we pledge to thee
Our honor and fidelity,
Both now and in the years to be,
A never failing loyalty.
Fair Oregon, thy name shall be
Written high in liberty.
Now, uncovered, swears thy every son
Our pledge to Oregon.

ACADEMIC COSTUME

The history of academic dress goes back several centuries, to the chill universities where cap and gown and hood were needed for covering and warmth. Subsequently this has become a ceremonial costume, with certain standardized features. For example, sleeves in the bachelor's gown are pointed, in the master's gown are oblong, in the doctor's gown are bell-shaped. Only the doctor's gown has velvet facing. The hood is lined with the official colors of the degree-conferring institution; for the University of Oregon these are lemon yellow and green. The outside trimming of the hood signifies the subject in which the degree was conferred, as follows:

Maize	Agriculture
White	Arts, Letters, Humanities
Drab	Commerce, Accountancy, Business
Lilac	Dentistry
Copper	Economics
Light Blue	Education
Orange	Engineering
Brown	Fine Arts, including Architecture
Russet	Forestry
Crimson	Journalism
Purple	Law
Lemon	Library Science
Green	Medicine
Pink	Music
Apricot	Nursing
Silver Gray	Oratory, Speech
Olive Green	Pharmacy
Dark Blue	Philosophy
Sage Green	Physical Education
Peacock Blue	Public Administration, including Foreign Service
Salmon Pink	Public Health
Golden Yellow	Science
Citron	Social Work
Scarlet	Theology
Gray	Veterinary Science

At the University of Oregon it is customary to hood doctors' candidates on the platform. Masters' candidates are not hooded at that time but wear their hoods in the academic procession. Traditionally, bachelors' candidates change the tassel on their cap from the front left to the front right as the degree is conferred. Caps are removed during prayer, the playing of the National Anthem and the Alma Mater, and during the commencement address if desired.

Awards for Distinguished Service

KENNETH JOHN O'CONNELL

Presented by Orlando John Hollis, B.S., J.D.
Dean of the School of Law

Kenneth J. O'Connell was a member of the faculty of the School of Law from 1935 until 1958 when he resigned to accept an appointment by the Governor to the Supreme Court of Oregon. His long period of service to the University was marked by outstanding classroom performance, productive scholarly activities, and the successful completion in 1953 of a project, suggested and supported by him, to provide the state with a modern revision of its statutory law in the form of OREGON REVISED STATUTES. His judicial opinions have attained national recognition. As an appellate court judge he consistently withheld decision until he was familiar with all that had been written by other courts and scholars upon the matter under consideration and until he was satisfied that the rule to be applied was responsive to present needs and conditions. His close association with Oregon lawyers, both informally and in the organized activities of the Bar, is valued highly by members of the legal profession. The influence of Kenneth J. O'Connell upon the improvement of the law of Oregon, indirectly through hundreds of students who had the benefit of his instruction and directly by his work as Justice of the Supreme Court of Oregon, is an achievement which the University of Oregon is proud to recognize.

BURT BROWN BARKER

Presented by Vernon Laban Barkhurst, M.A.
Director of Admissions and Director of Alumni Relations

Burt Brown Barker, pioneer son of the Pacific Northwest, after a distinguished career in the practice of law in the East, and while still a young man, returned to the land of his youth to give his generous talents to a multitude of good works. Scholar and author in the field of Oregon History, he has been business leader, patron of the arts, crusader for children's health, conservator of historic sites, exemplar of international comity. The University of Oregon likes to believe that the capstone of his fruitful career has been his service as the first, and only, Vice-President of the University. In this post, to which he came in 1928, successive presidents of the institution have prized the advantage of his vision and wisdom. Successive generations of students of the University will always be grateful for his friendship, his continuing solicitude for the integrity and amplitude of their educational opportunities.
