Snail

Ants are trash. Just imagine - they don't believe the world is ruled by a Giant Snail!

Rooster

No, it can't be morning. I haven't yet given the signal.

Sparrow

So what, nightingale? There are more of us sparrows!

Centipede

All I want to know is, are there centipedes on other planets too?

Important Fly

Don't you know? That's the fly that sat on the king's forehead!

Division of Labor

I'll watch you work, and you watch me eat.

Employer

Eight-hour work day? Impossible! You think I spend money only eight hours a day?

Bee

Why do I carry a stinger? In the name of the beehive.

Fly

Sure, times are bad. But in wartime, girls - what beautiful corpses!

Molehill

That blue speck on the horizon? It's nothing. They call it Mont Blanc.
