

The Center for the Study of Women in Society presents

BORDER LIES

RACE, IDENTITY, AND CITIZENSHIP

A CONFERENCE CROSSING THE BOUNDARIES OF SCHOLARSHIP AND POLITICS

PANELS

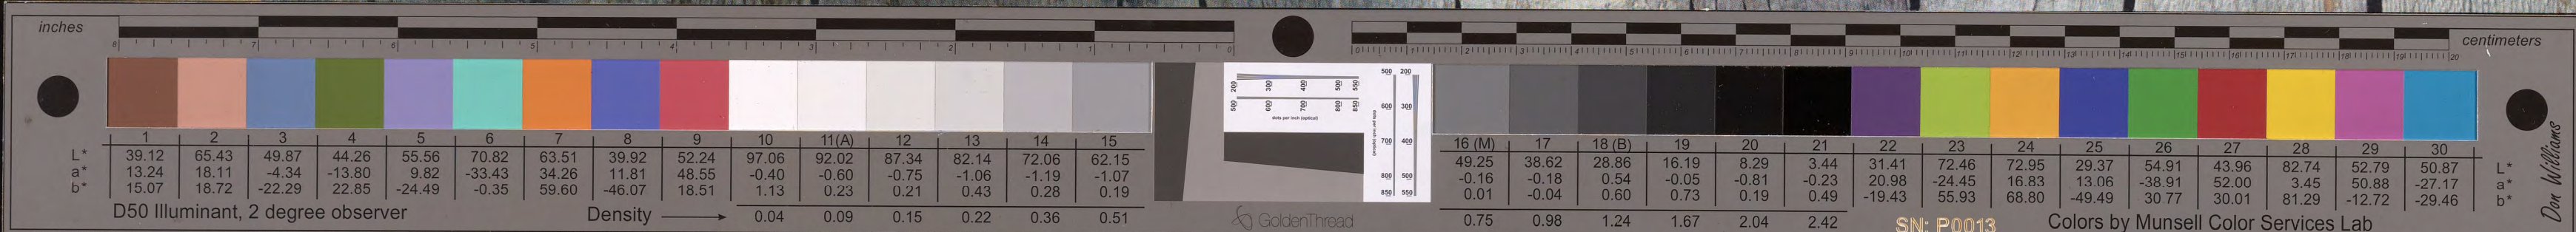

The (re) Imagined Community: Research and Policy Directions
Robin Morris Collin · Shari Huhndorf · Lynn Stephen · Mia Tuan

Where the Border Lies: Race and Citizenship in Theory and Policy
Lydia Chavez · Patricia Penn Hilden · Dorothy Roberts

FEBRUARY 12, 1999
Gerlinger Hall,
University of Oregon

CONCURRENT ROUNDTABLE SESSIONS
Affirmative Action and Beyond
Border Crossings: Subjectivity and Identity
Opening/Closing Borders:
Immigration, Globalization, and Capitalism
Decoding Citizenship and the Reproduction of Whiteness

For more information:
csws@oregon.uoregon.edu
or (541) 346-5015

Equal opportunity/affirmative action institution committed to cultural diversity and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Accommodations for people with disabilities will be provided if requested in advance.